

Majlis e Ulema Shia Europe and CoEJ

GUIDANCE ON VOTING FOR MUSLIMS IN THE UK

Your vote is your voice, and it is essential that it is heard.

1 REGISTER TO VOTE

The first step in making your voice heard is ensuring you are registered to vote. The deadline to register is 18th June. You can register online quickly and easily by visiting the official UK government website: <https://www.gov.uk/register-to-vote>

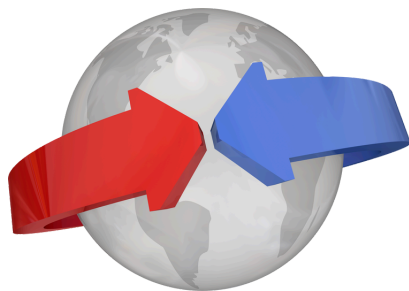

2

THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS ELECTION

This election is crucial. The decisions made by the next government will have lasting impacts on:

Economic Stability and Growth: With rising living costs and economic uncertainties, it is vital to elect representatives who will prioritise the well-being of all citizens.

International Relations and Peace: It is important to choose leaders who will advocate for justice and diplomacy on the world stage.

3

KEY VOTING CONSIDERATION: CEASEFIRE IN GAZA

Consider the voting records of Members of Parliament (MPs) on critical issues, such as the recent ceasefire in Gaza:

Humanitarian Concerns:

Reviewing MPs' positions on this issue can guide you in selecting candidates who align with your values on human rights and international justice.

Policy Consistency:

The voting record of MPs can indicate their broader foreign policy approach. Those who advocate for a ceasefire may also support other measures promoting global peace and security.

For detailed records of MPs, you can refer to the House of Commons Voting Records and TheyWorkForYou.

4

TACTICAL VOTING

In some constituencies, tactical voting may be required to help prevent a less favourable candidate from winning by supporting someone who has the best chance of success.

Using Resources

'The Muslim Vote' can be a valuable tool to see who is best placed to make an impact in your constituency.

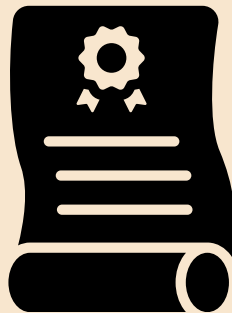

5

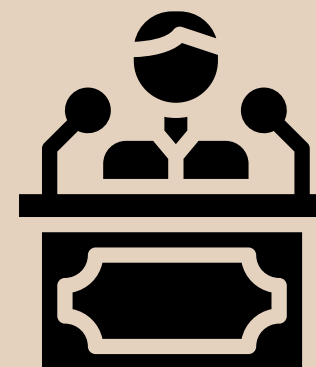

MAKING AN INFORMED DECISION

As a non-partisan organisations, we encourage you to use available resources to make an informed decision:

Review Party Manifestos

Evaluate Candidate Records

Engage in Discussions

By considering these factors, you can make a thoughtful and informed choice in the upcoming election. Your vote is not just a right but a responsibility to contribute to the future of our society.

