

CoEJ is seeking Palliative Care Support Champions

We are looking for enthusiastic volunteers from the healthcare sector in every Jamaat to support our Palliative Care Strategy

Who are we looking for?

1. Healthcare or allied healthcare professional from each Jamaat.
2. Experience in palliative care is preferred.
3. Passion for supporting Jamaat members regarding palliative care.
4. Good communication & public speaking skills essential as the role involves engaging with the community.
5. Empathy & understanding of the emotional & psychological aspects of palliative care.

What will the role entail?

1. Serve as a point of contact for palliative care support in your local Jamaat.
2. Provide information & advice on palliative care from a health perspective.
3. Deliver an introductory 10-minute talk on Palliative Care awareness this Ramadhan. The CoEJ Palliative Core team will provide the slides and information.
4. Commit to attend meetings & briefings with the CoEJ Palliative Core Team. Additional support & training will be provided.
5. Communicate feedback from Jamaats to CoEJ Palliative Core team to address collective needs.
6. Engage with the local Jamaat health & wellbeing initiatives.

Who are the CoEJ Palliative Core team?

- Team Lead: Professor Dr. Syed Qamar Abbas, Medical Director & Consultant in Palliative Medicine, St Clare Hospice, Essex. Senior Clinical Tutor, University of Cambridge, UK
- CoEJ Office Bearer: Dr Munir Dattoo, Vice President CoEJ, General Practitioner, North London, UK
- CoEJ Executive Councillor: Br Arif Hiridjee, Elected President of Burial Council, Paris North & South Jamaats, France
- Team Members:
 - Dr Sayyada Mawji, General Practitioner, North London, UK
 - Dr Mohammed Ali Hussein Rajpar, Emergency Medicine Physician, Trollhättan, Sweden
 - Dr Zaineb Mohsin, Acute Medicine & Endocrine Consultant, London North West NHS Trust. Clinical Research Fellow, University of Oxford, UK
 - Dr Sukaina Hirji, General Practitioner, North London, UK

